GARS-The business continues moderate, as it has been found difficult to land any large amount of the recent arrivals. There is some demand, however, from both refiners and the trade, and as soon as samples can be shown larger transactions are looked for. Prices remain much the same as previously reported, and we make no alteration in quotations; sales of 210 hhds. at 115-212c. Reflued are quiet at 165-217c. for Hards; 155-216c, for Soft Whites, and 145-215c. for Or, Yellows. We quote:

N. Y. WHOLESALE PRICES OF COUNTRY PRODUCE
For the Week Ending March 3, 1868.
[Expressive to The N. Y. Triebye by our own Reporter.]
The following are the current rates of articles in good condition, as sold by commission houses at wholesale. Shippers receive 5 to 10 per cent less, deducted for commissions, beside freight and other charges. Boxes or packages should be carefully marked with paint, and the name of the sender should also be painted upon one end. Nail an invoice or list of the articles upon the under side of the cover, and send a letter by mail, containing an invoice and directions, also stating how and when sent. Clean packages and care in putting up will add much to the value of the produce.

BEANS AND PEAS.

Beans go off slowly at the high prices, but so few are coming forward that holders are still firmer in their views. Some lots of Marrows are limited at $6 \tilde{\phi}$ bush; some Mediums are still selling at $5 \tilde{\phi}$, but, they are generally bringing $5 \tilde{\phi}$ bush. We quote:

Receipts of 7.792 packages for the week, show a falling off in the arrivals, partly owing to the difficulty of getting through with the freight, but still more owing to a scarcity in the country. The trade continues excited, prices steadily working up. We advance the rates 2 350, $\tilde{\text{P}}$ in this week. Single tubs or half firkins of choice State butter are selling at 650. $\tilde{\text{P}}$ in and we have even heard of Fancy Dairies at 620. Dealers anticipate still higher rates. Common and Medium are not affected to the extent of Finc. We quote:

THE CHICAGO AND ROCK ISLAND RAILROAD CASE.

This case, which has previously been before the supreme Court, came up in the United States Circuit Court, yesterday, an order having been made by Judge Cardozo to the United States Courts. It is one of five suits against the Chicago and Rock Island Eailroad Company, and was removed here on the question of jurisdiction, The counsel for Mr. Hatch, the plaintiff, gave notice of a motion to remand the cause until the other motions in the State Court are argued and denied, on the ground that, if the State Court discharged the injunctions that had been granted against the Company, the United States Court would follow suit, and vice rersa, and further said that the action had been removed to the United States Court as to two parties, and was a disjointed action, and when the motion to remand had been argued it would be time enough to argue the motion to dissolve the injunction. Counsel for defendants said that the order for removal had been made about the middle of has month, and that, although the action was cut in two it was not cut in half. The corporation was a resident of Himois, as was also its president. No dissolution of an injunction in the Supreme Court will avail as to this suit. We have prepared answers fully to argue the two injunctions in this case, and desire to do so speedily. So neither branch of the action in the respective Courts depends on the other branch. The Court said it would hear argument on both motions at the same time, and did not consider it indispensable to hear motion to remand first. Counsel for plaintiff still contended that the motion to remand should have precedence on the ground that if proper to be granted it would save much line, as, on the arguments on the motions to dissolve in the State court, it took one whole day to read the papers, and, in fact, the reading was not yet completed. Counsel for defendants replied, still contending that the motion for a dissolution in the United States Court should first be arguments on the motions at the same time. Counsel for defendants replied, still contended the same time in the state court, it took one whole day to read the papers, and, in fact, the reading was not yet completed.
